

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Legislative Affairs

Office of Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

January 15, 2016

The Honorable Thomas R. Carper
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Carper:

This responds to your letter to the Attorney General dated December 4, 2015, concerning two recent cases in which Asian Americans were indicted for allegedly engaging in criminal activities. Your letter refers specifically to Xiafen Chen, an employee of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, who was indicted last year in connection with allegations that she accessed restricted U.S. Government files and made materially false representations to federal investigators, and to Dr. Xiaoxing Xi, who was indicted last year in connection with a wire fraud scheme. We are sending identical responses to the other Members, who joined in your letter.

As your letter notes, neither Ms. Chen nor Dr. Xi have been tried for their alleged criminal activities. On March 10, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Ohio, in consultation with and without objection from Ms. Chen's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment without prejudice. Similarly, on September 11, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, also in consultation with and without objection from Dr. Xi's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment of Dr. Xi without prejudice in order to pursue additional information that came to the government's attention.

We appreciate your concerns about these matters and we are in complete agreement with the sentiments expressed in your letter that race should play no part in charging decisions. Department of Justice (the Department) lawyers make charging decisions based on the law and facts presented in particular cases in light of the Principles of Federal Prosecution set forth in United States Attorneys' Manual 9-27.000. See http://www.justice.gov/usao/eousa/foia_reading_room/usam/title9/27mcrn.htm#9-27.001.

We have received assurances from the respective USAOs and the FBI that the race, ethnicity, and national origin of the individuals played no role in the cases of Ms. Chen and Dr. Xi, and we are aware of no other information that would indicate that race, ethnicity, and national origin was a consideration in either case. We can assure you, however, that if we become aware of credible allegations that impermissible considerations of race, ethnicity, and national orientation played a role in these cases or any other case brought by the Department, we will take appropriate action.

The Honorable Thomas R. Carper
Page Two

We hope that this information is helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if we may provide additional assistance regarding this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "P. Kadzik". The signature is stylized with a large initial "P" and a long, sweeping underline.

Peter J. Kadzik
Assistant Attorney General

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Legislative Affairs

Office of Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

January 15, 2016

The Honorable Christopher A. Coons
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Coons:

This responds to your letter to the Attorney General dated December 4, 2015, concerning two recent cases in which Asian Americans were indicted for allegedly engaging in criminal activities. Your letter refers specifically to Xiafen Chen, an employee of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, who was indicted last year in connection with allegations that she accessed restricted U.S. Government files and made materially false representations to federal investigators, and to Dr. Xiaoxing Xi, who was indicted last year in connection with a wire fraud scheme. We are sending identical responses to the other Members, who joined in your letter.

As your letter notes, neither Ms. Chen nor Dr. Xi have been tried for their alleged criminal activities. On March 10, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Ohio, in consultation with and without objection from Ms. Chen's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment without prejudice. Similarly, on September 11, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, also in consultation with and without objection from Dr. Xi's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment of Dr. Xi without prejudice in order to pursue additional information that came to the government's attention.

We appreciate your concerns about these matters and we are in complete agreement with the sentiments expressed in your letter that race should play no part in charging decisions. Department of Justice (the Department) lawyers make charging decisions based on the law and facts presented in particular cases in light of the Principles of Federal Prosecution set forth in United States Attorneys' Manual 9-27.000. See http://www.justice.gov/usao/eousa/foia_reading_room/usam/title9/27mcrm.htm#9-27.001.

We have received assurances from the respective USAOs and the FBI that the race, ethnicity, and national origin of the individuals played no role in the cases of Ms. Chen and Dr. Xi, and we are aware of no other information that would indicate that race, ethnicity, and national origin was a consideration in either case. We can assure you, however, that if we become aware of credible allegations that impermissible considerations of race, ethnicity, and national orientation played a role in these cases or any other case brought by the Department, we will take appropriate action.

The Honorable Christopher A. Coons
Page Two

We hope that this information is helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if we may provide additional assistance regarding this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "PJKA", written in a cursive style.

Peter J. Kadzik
Assistant Attorney General

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Legislative Affairs

Office of Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

January 15, 2016

The Honorable John Carney
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Carney:

This responds to your letter to the Attorney General dated December 4, 2015, concerning two recent cases in which Asian Americans were indicted for allegedly engaging in criminal activities. Your letter refers specifically to Xiafen Chen, an employee of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, who was indicted last year in connection with allegations that she accessed restricted U.S. Government files and made materially false representations to federal investigators, and to Dr. Xiaoxing Xi, who was indicted last year in connection with a wire fraud scheme. We are sending identical responses to the other Members, who joined in your letter.

As your letter notes, neither Ms. Chen nor Dr. Xi have been tried for their alleged criminal activities. On March 10, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Ohio, in consultation with and without objection from Ms. Chen's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment without prejudice. Similarly, on September 11, 2015, the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, also in consultation with and without objection from Dr. Xi's counsel, exercised its discretion to dismiss the indictment of Dr. Xi without prejudice in order to pursue additional information that came to the government's attention.

We appreciate your concerns about these matters and we are in complete agreement with the sentiments expressed in your letter that race should play no part in charging decisions. Department of Justice (the Department) lawyers make charging decisions based on the law and facts presented in particular cases in light of the Principles of Federal Prosecution set forth in United States Attorneys' Manual 9-27.000. See http://www.justice.gov/usao/eousa/foia_reading_room/usam/title9/27mcrm.htm#9-27.001.

We have received assurances from the respective USAOs and the FBI that the race, ethnicity, and national origin of the individuals played no role in the cases of Ms. Chen and Dr. Xi, and we are aware of no other information that would indicate that race, ethnicity, and national origin was a consideration in either case. We can assure you, however, that if we become aware of credible allegations that impermissible considerations of race, ethnicity, and national orientation played a role in these cases or any other case brought by the Department, we will take appropriate action.

The Honorable John Carney
Page Two

We hope that this information is helpful. Please do not hesitate to contact this office if we may provide additional assistance regarding this or any other matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Peter J. Kadzik". The signature is stylized with a large initial "P" and "K".

Peter J. Kadzik
Assistant Attorney General